The Wine

Anchored by fruit from Money Road Vineyard in Oakville and aged 15 months in French oak, this Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon represents the top of the Educated Guess tier — sourced from one of Napa Valley's most coveted appellations and made with the intention and structure the address demands. Warm days, cool evenings, and benchland soils produce Cabernet with depth and concentration that commands some of California's highest prices. This wine delivers that character at a genuinely competitive price point. A natural fit for Oakville-driven Cabernet lists.

Accolades

91 POINTS - WINE SPECTATOR I 2023 VINTAGE
Plump and up-front, with blackberry and açaí compote flavors wrapped in black licorice. Flattering and broad through the finish, with a note of apple wood checking in. Pretty much ready to go, too.

95 POINTS - TASTING PANEL I 2022 VINTAGE
Mulberry and chocolate amped with red pepper and cardamom…silky mouthfeel with sweet tobacco, finishing with blue fruit and spiced cedar. Big-boned, with wonderful dimension and style.

93 POINTS - WINE ENTHUSIAST I 2022 VINTAGE
Full-bodied with a core of concentration, this Cabernet Sauvignon offers juicy dark fruits mixed with the structure to pair dynamically alongside a meal.
